

Are drugs a problem in Ecuador?

Written by T. Rob Brown (aka Roberto Chocolate)

Tuesday, 05 January 2010 17:40 - Last Updated Tuesday, 04 May 2010 17:40

Drugs are a major problem throughout central America. The problem in Ecuador has more than doubled over the last year.

In 2009, Ecuador's National Narcotics Directorate (DNA) registered the seizure of 72.9 tons of drugs. In 2007 and 2008, DNA registered the seizure of 26.3 and 30.3 tons respectively.