

CAUTION: Violence in Mexico continues

Written by T. Rob Brown (aka Roberto Chocolate)

Tuesday, 22 June 2010 17:16 - Last Updated Tuesday, 22 June 2010 17:18

This article was in the Southern Pulse newsletter. Roberto

MEXICO

With 52 murders, 11 June 2010 was one of the deadliest days in Mexico within the past six years. 20 people were murdered outside of a rehabilitation center in Ciudad Juarez, another 20 killed in Ciudad Madero and 12 others murdered throughout the states of Durango, Guerrero, San Luis Potosi, and Sinaloa. The most violent day recorded in Mexico was 16 December 2009 with 64 murders.