

Canadians can stay in Panama for 6 months now

Written by T. Rob Brown (aka Roberto Chocolate)

Saturday, 21 August 2010 09:38 - Last Updated Friday, 17 September 2010 00:17

□ Tourist visa for Canadians extended to 6 months

Yasser \(Alexis\) Williams Arosemena (www.aroslaw.com) advised me today that Canadians are now permitted to stay in Panama on a tourist visa for up to 6 months - an increase from the current 30 days (which can be extended to 90 days)

This may be a result of the Free Trade Agreement signed between Canada and Panama earlier this year - and it is good news, especially for Canadian snowbirds - Florida is not our only option to get away from the winter anymore! Roberto