

New bases open to fight drug smuggling in Panama

Written by T. Rob Brown (aka Roberto Chocolate)

Tuesday, 27 April 2010 15:59 - Last Updated Tuesday, 11 May 2010 21:04

New air and sea bases open to help fight drug smuggling

Panama's Security Ministry will inaugurate its fourth air and sea base in Bahia Piña, Darien province on 23 April 2010. Panama will also open another base in late April at Rambala, Bocas del Toro. Panamanian authorities have opened five naval-air stations in the past four months to help improve drug interdiction, four on the Pacific and one on the Atlantic.